

IMELDA PARK

This park is situated at the foothill of the Historic Heroes Hill and along the National Highway. This place is the favorite spot of picnickers and scuba diving enthusiasts due to the presence of the vast marine life.

BARASIBIS PARK

Its glory and fame derived from its naturally endowed beauty. It is located at Mabilbila Sur. This paradise is one of the protected water shed in the locality.

ROCK FORMATIONS

The rock formations are scattered along the beaches of the South China Sea particularly at San Jose, neMagsaysay (southern end of Santa).

NATIONAL HEROES PARK

Its name was derived from its contributions to Ilocanos' bravery during Spanish era and World War II for it was utilized as their last stand in those significant wars. This marker lies in the southern part of the Imelda park.

...come and discover this place..be amazed.!.

The SECRET

PARADISE

to be

REVEALED

Santa, Ilocos Sur, Philippines

A New Paradise

Santa, formerly called Santa Catalina de Alexandria. It is the second oldest town of the Province of Ilocos Sur, founded after its Patron, Saint Catherine de Alexandria. Santa, served as the hospital of the Spaniards during the Spanish Era.

With the vast shoreline of this town, coupled with the magnificent Abra River, and the friendly Santanians, Santa is truly a place to see.

From sea lovers to nature enthusiasts, Santa is indeed one of the great places to discover as there are a lot of things to do and see from boundary to boundary.

Santa celebrates its fiesta every November 25-27 with various activities like street dancing, inter-barangay boxing competition, inter-barangay or open basketball tournament, different pageants, and many more.

places that you must visit.....

BANAOANG BRIDGE

The famous Banaoang or Quirino Bridge is a genuine product of man's artistry. It is located in the northern boundary of Santa that connects the Ilocos Range to its adjacent counterpart.

BANAOANG VIEW DECK

Reaching the peak of the Zigzag road lies the Banaoang View Deck where a panoramic sunrise and sunset as well as overlooking the Banaoang Bridge and the Abra River down are sights to behold.